Dear Students and Parents,

As we break for a short summer interlude, we wish you an invigorating and delightful vacation !

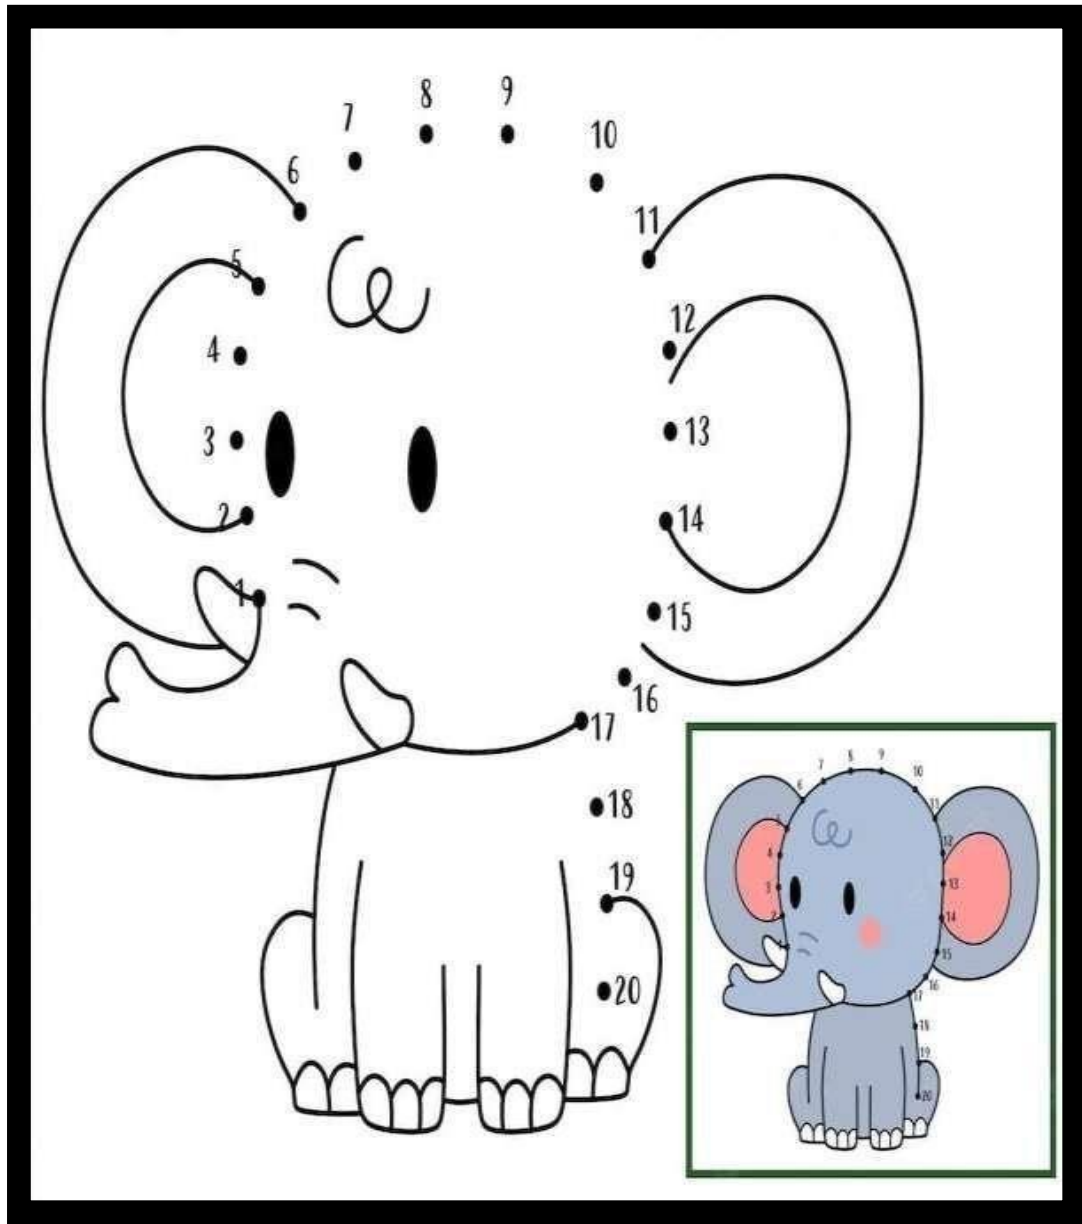

Embrace this opportunity to relax, explore, and create enduring memories.

However, remember as we are turning into summer hiatus, to engage our students creatively and intellectually, let's venture into

FAMILY TIES

Holidays are the best time to know about your family.

- Sit with your family members and make a family tree or a family house.
- Paste pictures of your family members, talk about the things they like and dislike the most and you will cherish these memories.

“First we make our habits, then our habits make us.”

Follow these rules for 21 days to make it a successful habit.

Good Habits for Kids

1. Morning and evening prayer.
2. Water a plant.
3. Helping you parents and grandparents.
4. Say magic words (Thank you, Please, Sorry, Excuse me) to helpers at home.

5. Physical activity (sport, dance, yoga, go for a walk etc.)
6. Try a new dish.
7. Revise number 1 to 30 and other concepts.
8. Everyday do picture reading from your Literacy skill book.
9. Learn to pack your bag.
10. Converse in English with your parents & family members.

Keep a daily record of your progress

MONTH

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY	NOTES

The calendar features a light blue background with a grid of white cells. The days of the week are labeled at the top. The 'NOTES' column is on the right. The calendar is decorated with various illustrations: a person holding a bouquet of flowers, a potted plant, a chair, and a basket of cookies. There are also decorative elements like stars and a banner at the top.
